The Story & You - 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

What does it take to make an adult cry? For me, it's always the experience of the nearness of God. Take those guys on the shore of the Galilee, for example. They fished that sea all night and came back with nothing. Just a word from Jesus, though, and the fish came racing into the nets, begging to be caught up in the great Mystery.

When Simon Peter saw this, he broke down. Get away from me, Rabbi. You don't know me, and once you do you won't want anything to do with me. That's usually everyone's response when they have a God-sighting, a moment of such grace that, along with tears, comes the sense that someone else should have received this, someone better, someone worthier, someone who is...well...not us.

Don't worry, says Jesus. This was just a practice catch. From now on you and I are going to be hauling in people, billions and billions of them. So don't stress about your insufficiencies. My grace is sufficient.

You see, Jesus knows where all the fish are. He knows where to place the boats, way out in the deep. He knows where your wounds are, your losses, and your doubts. It's never in the shallows, but in the deep memories, that sadness festers. Do you feel like you've fished all night long for a job, for friends, for love, for healing? Jesus sees you. He knows where you are in the big Sea. He wants to comfort you, to reel you into his net of communion and compassion. It's never about being worthy. It's about being welcomed.

Let Jesus catch you in his net. It's the safest place in the sea.

In what ways have you experienced the nearness of God?

With the Vatican meeting on Catholic Sex Abuse quickly approaching, February 21-24, it is reasonable to expect we will once again experience a wave of negative information from the media. Our reality is that the Catholic Church is NOT experiencing a crisis of current sexual abuse of minors in the clergy. We are experiencing a crisis of confidence in the Church today – and the mission of tomorrow is being jeopardized - because of the sins of the past and our inability to communicate with the average Catholic.

Rather than sit back and wonder what the effect this is having on the public or average Catholics, we propose talking directly to our people. Imagine every one of us, using all of our communication channels all at the same time to provide the faithful with the facts, and also serve as a reminder that the Catholic Church is more than we often realize. The MTYR movement is from the Archdiocese of Denver and approved by Archbishop Aquila, that extends the idea that the Catholic Church is more than you realize. It is specifically designed to help our parishes revitalize their staff and parishioners in their faith in the Church, to begin conversations with others, and begin pre-evangelization with our larger community. Please call the office at 303-433-8361 if you are willing to help with the next steps of the MTYR movement! Check the webpage below to see if you have any questions. <https://mtyr.org/together>.

GOD'S SUMMONS

Confronted with God's power and majesty, the first response of the prophet Isaiah was to acknowledge his sinfulness. "Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips," he said aloud. Likewise, with his empty fishing nets dramatically filled at Jesus' instruction, Peter fell to his knees and cried out, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man."

Next, Peter got up. He docked his boats then left to follow Jesus. Isaiah also had a dramatic change of heart. When he heard the Lord say, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" Isaiah answered, "Here I am, send me."

We are summoned daily by the Risen Lord. We are reminded of the saving power of the gospel and know in our heart of hearts that, as St. Paul wrote, believing in anything else won't lead to anything.

What will it take for you to move past your sinfulness? What will it take for you to get off your knees? What will it take for you to bring to dock what is unimportant and to accept your call to be God's messenger?
